

We are always looking for new talents!!!

Every year, we help several dozen of clients in their acquisition of a luxury property in the region, with an average sale level of CHF 5'500'000 this year. To continue our growth, we are looking for:

An experienced broker in luxury real estate, Lausanne

Your mission ?

- Develop a portfolio of luxury properties, mainly located in the canton of Vaud and occasionally in Geneva
- Acquire new clients, both local and foreign, advise and assist them in their acquisition
- Ensure negotiations and the smooth running of transactions
- Contribute with our team to develop our market share and our network of partners

Your assets ?

- An excellent legal and technical knowledge of the business
- Significant and successful experience in luxury real estate in the region
- A strong dynamism and enthusiasm for your work The desire to work very strongly in a team
- A perfect command of French and English, both spoken and written
- A strong availability, especially outside office hours

Full or part-time position in our office of Lausanne, please send your application to «jobs@luxury-places.ch»